Jarvis Patten Requested to Resign.

Washington, December 3.—It is understood that Jarvis Patten, Commissioner of Navigation, has been requested to resign. The Secretary of the Navy today issued an order directing that on January 1st next all stores and supplies and the records of all property and plants at navy yards and stations belonging to the Navy Department, with the exception of vessels and stores and supplies coming under the cognizance of the Bureau of under the cognizance of the Bureau of Medicine and Surgery, and of the Marine Corps, be transferred to the Bureau of Provisions and Clothing.

An officer of the pay corps is to be designated as general store-keeper at each yard and station to take charge of the stores.

of the stores. The civil employes and laborers connected with the accounts and care of stores and supplies will be transferred to the office of the general storekeeper. On board vessels all equipments, ou fits and supplies are to be transferred to the pay officers.

The order is intended to carry out Secretary Whitney's idea concerning the concentration in one bureau of the elected in November last to fill the un-expired term of Mr. Politzer, and also to decide whether he is entitled to draw that portion of the salary as a Representative which had accrued prior to October 29th, when his resignation as Minister to Turkey was accepted, and to which time he had drawn sal-ary as such. Judge Durham, in his letter, says: Up to October 29th you were entitled to and were drawing but were entitled to and were drawing but one salary; from that date until you were elected to Congress you had no office, and consequently could draw no salary. Under section 51, of the Revised Statutes, relating to the pay of Congressmen elected to fill vacancies, you are entitled to draw your salary as a member of Congress from the time the salary of your predecesor ceased, which was some time previous to the time to which you were paid cies, you are entitled to draw your salary as a member of Congress from the time the salary of your predecesor ceased, which was some time previous to the time to which you were paid your salary as Minister. While you are entitled to draw salary as member of Congress for a portion of the time during which you also drew a calary as Minister to Turkey, you were not holding two offices at the same time and drawing pay for both, which would seem to be prohibited by section 785, Revised Statutes, but you are entitled to draw such salary as mementitled to draw such salary as mem-ber of Congress by reason of the manner of fixing the time when the salary of a member elect, as you have been, to fill a vacancy, shall commence. Congress, in its discretion, may fix the time when an officer shall commence drawing his salary, provided his predecessor has ceased to draw the same; and as so provided in section 51, you will be entitled, after you have been sworn into office, to draw your salary as member, from the time when your predecessor ceased to draw his salary
